The estate

In the heart of the Provence, the domain of Château les Crostes is nestled between forests and hills. Its 55-hectare of vineyard surrounds the park and the Château dating from the 17th century.

This family castle will allow you to enjoy a relaxing stay, cut off from the world, while admiring the view of nature that changes with the seasons.

Facilities

The Château is the best place to relax and de-connect. After your long walk in the vineyard and the forest, you will enjoy the swimming pool that will please the entire family.

Read a book in our library or play billards in our pool room, you can be entertained!

For the more athletic, a tennis court is available during the day as well as a fitness room and a sauna. Also, a petanque court for a typical provence long hot summer evenings with friends and family.

We have a private helipad.
